Don't be scammed by recruiters asking for payment!

MGM Resorts International and our partners: HR system, online assessments, video interviews and drug and background, will never ask for payment. Never send money or pass on personal details to anyone who says that they can provide employment with MGM Resorts International.

If someone is asking for money claiming to be a recruiter for MGM Resorts International or any of our properties in Las Vegas or around the world, please report them to talent@mgmresorts.com and we will investigate the situation and take corrective action.

None of our properties will ever request payment and we are not associated with any third party recruiters who will request payment. If they ask for money, it is a scam!

How to protect yourself

- Verify the email address: MGM Resorts International emails always end in "@mgmresorts.com," "@mandalaybay.com," "@bellagioresort.com," "@lv.mgmgrand.com," "@mirage.com," "@aria.com," "@vdara.com," "@nynyvegas.com," "@excalibur.com," "@luxor.com," "@montecarlo.com," "@delanolasvegas.com," "@circuscircus.com," "@beaurivage.com," "@goldstrike.com," "@det.mgmgrand.com," "@mgmnationalharbor.com," "@theborgata.com," "@mgmspringfield.com," "@myworkday.com," "@hireright.com," "@aptmetrics.com," "@hirevue.com."

- Beware of emails sent from free web-based email accounts such as Yahoo, Gmail, Hotmail, Live, etc.

- MGM Resorts International careers sites will always include: www.mgmresortscareers.com or https://mgmresorts.wd5.myworkdayjobs.com.

- Do not send money or share your bank account details. No money transfers or payments of any kind will ever be requested by MGM Resorts International as part of the recruitment process, for immigration documents, insurance, or any other purpose.

- We never make job offers without performing a formal interview process. Prospective employees are always invited to an interview with a MGM Resorts International team member. The location of the interview is always provided to candidates either by phone, or email from verifiable MGM Resorts International email account.

If you suspect you received a fraudulent communication, please forward it to talent@mgmresorts.com and we will investigate the situation and take corrective action.
