

Required Licensing Information

Please be aware that you will be required to attend a New Hire Processing appointment to finalize the onboarding process. If your position requires specific licensing, you will need to present these documents at the time of your processing appointment. If you have questions, please contact Employment at (702) 692-1899.

Important: If you do not bring all required forms, licensing documents and identification, your New Hire Processing appointment may be rescheduled.
